

PURELY PERSONAL

The Movements of Many People, Newberrians, and Those Who Visit Newberry.

Mr. Arthur W. Lee of Whitmire was here today.—Union Progress.

Mr. F. A. Schumpert is spending a few days in the city this week.

Alvan Jay of Silverstreet, route 1, was in town one day recently.—Saluda Standard.

Dr. R. M. Stevenson preached last Sabbath at Prosperity and Cannons Creek, S. C.—A. R. Presbyterian.

Mr. Geo. D. Brown, State mill school inspector, was in Newberry Wednesday.

Miss Sudie Dennis spent the weekend in Columbia with friends.—Swansea cor., Lexington Dispatch.

Mr. Fred Hiller and Rev. W. D. Wise went to Newberry Monday.—Chapin cor., Lexington Dispatch.

Mr. George Price of Arthurs has rented his place there and moved back to Mollohon mill, Newberry.—Lexington Dispatch.

Mrs. M. L. B. Sturkey and little Harriet, are visiting relatives in Greenwood and Newberry.—McCormick cor., Abbeville Press and Banner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Workman have returned to Newberry, after having spent several days in Saluda, where they were recently married.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Watkins and Master Clarence spent Sunday in Camden with relatives, making the trip by auto.

Messrs. Roy K. Frick and Harold Shealy of Newberry college spent Sunday with home folks.—Chapin cor., Lexington Dispatch.

Little Miss Bettie McFall, who is in the third grade at Boundary Street school, has scarlet fever, and for this reason, work in this grade has been suspended for two weeks.

Jordan Poole of Newberry spent a few days last week with his sister, Miss Mary Frances Poole, at the home of Mrs. L. W. White.—Abbeville Press and Banner.

This community was shocked to learn of the death of Mr. Walter Wessinger of Newberry county, who died in the Columbia hospital on the 16th instant. Mr. Wessinger had many friends and relatives in this community.—Chapin cor., Lexington Dispatch.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

An awfully wet rain.

Newberry used to have a chamber of commerce.

After the rains are over, drag the roads.

Don't forget the Hallowe'en party at Hunter-DeWalt school house Friday night, October 22.

Secure your tickets for the Land of the Cotton Blossoms at once if you have not already done so.

Rev. F. E. Dibble will preach at Cannon Creek mission on next Sabbath afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The man who goes into debt for any other purpose than to keep out of jail is an alphredphool.

The first lyceum attraction, the American Girls, will appear at Holland hall this (Thursday) evening.

Not all the automobiles in Newberry are vicious. Lots of them have horns, but they won't hook.

What has become of the scheme so recently exploited to make flour bread from cotton seed meal?

Some folks who claim to know, assert that horses and mules will command a high price next spring.

"Red Rose" on Wednesday night had a good house and the play was thoroughly enjoyed.

Dr. J. Henry Harms will preach at the First Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

When renewing your subscription to The Herald and News don't forget to remind us of the big magazine offer.

Reserved seats for the Land of the Cotton Blossoms may be secured at the drug store of Gilder & Weeks and for only 35 cents each.

See our magazine offer in another column. It is worth your while to look into this offer. Five papers for the price of one for the next few days.

The County Teachers' association will meet in the high school building Saturday at 11 o'clock. All teachers are expected to attend.

If you subscribe to The Herald and News, or renew your subscription, we will include four standard magazines, all one year. WRITE OR PHONE.

We now urge all our subscribers to renew their subscription to The Herald and News and get four magazines one year extra. WRITE OR PHONE.

The Land of Cotton Blossoms at the opera house Friday night. Tickets now on sale. Reserved seats 35 cents, general admission 25 cents and children 15 cents.

Mr. Yancey T. Dickert, rural carrier on R. F. D. No. 7, went to the Columbia hospital Thursday to have his tonsils removed. His substitute, Mr. Albert Cannon, is serving the route.

The regular monthly meeting of the Junior Workers' Mission band of the Church of the Redeemer, will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

When charming October leaves, she will leave the leaves all brown and the grassy green grass will be green no longer.

Master Claude Lathan, whose foot, about two weeks ago, was dangerously crushed beneath the "ocean wave" at the new park, is steadily improving under the treatment of Dr. Houseal.

The circus will be here next Wednesday. Be sure and bring the children. It will be an education for them and give them something to talk about for weeks.

Everybody get ready for the fair. It begins next week. All the railroads will operate special trains at reduced prices. This is a great State reunion time. You can see all your friends and get back home the same day.

Prosperity and Cannon Creek, S. C., have elected Rev. M. T. Ellis of Doraville, Ga., to be their pastor. Brother Ellis has not announced his decision.—A. R. Presbyterian.

The first feature in the Y. M. C. A. lyceum at Holland hall Thursday night. Newberry is lively now, not to speak of the movies every night at the opera house.

There has been some beautiful blue October weather for the past few days, but the Dutch Prophet says that we are to have fair weather next week for the State fair. Here's hoping.

The foot ball game between the Clemson scrubs and the Newberry scrubs, which was to have been played at the Belton fair, was called off on account of rain.

New York, Milwaukee, Atlanta, Chicago, Lynchburg, Morristown, Boston, Newberry are some of the largest cities of this great country appearing on the register at the Savoy this week.

The old wooden bridge across Scotts creek on Nance street near the power house has been torn up to be replaced by a concrete bridge. This will be the third of its kind over the same creek recently.

If you haven't already subscribed to our club of magazines do it now. You will enjoy reading these magazines. We will sell you four magazines and The Herald and News all one year for only $1.49.

All of our subscribers who have received the magazines seem to like them. Some have told us they don't see how we can do it. When renewing your subscription to The Herald and News don't forget to ask about the magazines.

Sam Grimes, colored janitor at the postoffice, while working around the front of the building Wednesday night, fell down from the left of the entrance onto the stone curbing and was considerably bruised and shaken up.

Sheriff Blease has gone to Spartanburg for Bill Gilliam, for whom he has been scouting for several months. Bill is an old offender. He is wanted this time for disposing of property under lien. Sheriff Blease located him in Spartanburg and had him arrested.

An R. F. D. man appreciates a stretch of good road more than anybody else, in fact he prizes it so highly that he often feels like taking it home every night and tucking it under the bed he sleeps in, to keep anybody from stealing it.

We call him a hero of whom history relates: "He rode his foaming charger to victory through a rain of bullets and a field of blood." But a greater hero is he on whose tombstone is inscribed: "He rode a split log drag over the roughest, muddiest road in Newberry county."

Three white men were up before Magistrate Player Tuesday morning charged with gambling. Two of them pleaded guilty, but the third denied the charge. The judge used the two penitent ones as witnesses against No. 3 and found him guilty. The sentence was 30 days in each case, or $5 for No. 3 and $3 each for the other two.

The Following Newberrians have gone to Edgefield at witnesses in the suit against the Southern railway in the case of Pendleton Jones for $20,000 damages: John Peterson, Glenn Bullock, H. B. Wells, T. B. Wicker, J. L. Dickert, J. M. Smith, F. G. Davis, J. P. Shealy, P. C. Gaillard, T. N. Parks, E. H. Cousins, Dr. F. D. Mower, D. L. Beacham.

Friday night "The Land of the Cotton Blossoms," by local talent, will hold the boards at the opera house.

The play is written by a Newberry girl and the music adapted by a Newberry girl and the cast is of Newberry people and the proceeds go to Newberry improvements. And the price is so cheap that there should be an overflow house.

The reporter can't find all the happenings in the county by himself. He must to a great extent depend on his friends in different parts of the county to help him. So now, if you run across a little news item in your community, you will confer a great favor by writing a sketch of it on a postal card and addressing it to the Local Reporter, care the Herald and News.

Church Notice.

The holy communion will be administered next Sunday morning at Bethlehem church, Pomaria. Arrangements will be made at same service for every member canvass. Mr. W. B. Boines, principal, and Dr. E. O. Hentz, alternate, are to represent the pastorate at the approaching synod at Newberry.

Central M. E. Church, South.

(Rev. F. E. Dibble, Pastor.) The services for Sunday next, October 24, will be as follows: Morning service, 11 a. m., subject, "The All-knowing Father—A Message of Comfort."

Sunday school, 4 p. m. Epworth league, 6:45 p. m. Evening service, 7:30 p. m.; subject "Is Conscience a Sure Guide?"

All are cordially invited to worship with us. Will your place in God's house be vacant on His day?

Church of the Redeemer.

(Rev. Edward Plentwider, Pastor.) Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

10:15 a. m. The Sunday school meets. Let each teacher and scholar be present. Whose class shall be a banner class Sunday?

11:15 a. m. The morning service, with the holy communion. This will be the regular fall communion, and every member of the church and the young men of the college are requested to be present. Too many church members neglect this sacred and holy institution of our Lord. It is for our special benefit, and we neglect it to our own hurt.

7:30 p. m. The evening service of song and prayer. The pastor will preach a sermon on the subject, "The Shibboleth of Life." The text is from one of the most interesting and touching little incidents in the Old Testament. The sermon will be short, practical and pointed. There are many men and women in Newberry who do not attend night services in any church. If any such may read this announcement, come to the services, it will do you good. There will be good music.

The public is cordially invited. We want everybody to feel at home in the Church of the Redeemer.

We have the cigars, cigarettes and tobacco to please the trade, and we can sell them so you can make something on them
ANNIE O. RUFF
The Wholesale Cigar Store.
Don't forget our Laundry Agency.

Keep Yourself Up to Scratch
Fortify Your System Before it is Weakened by Ills

Don't wait until you are actually sick to take a laxative, you know "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." If you will just take LIV-VER-LAX regularly, it will keep you continually in the best possible shape, bright, energetic and happy. It is made of harmless vegetable matter, and by acting gently but effectively keeps the system cleared of poisons and ready to perform its best work.

LIV-VER-LAX is sold under an absolute guarantee to give satisfaction, or money will be returned. For sale in 50c and $1 bottles at Gilder & Weeks, P. E. Way and W. G. Mayes.

Hunter-DeWalt.

On last Monday, Hunter-DeWalt school opened the session with 72 pupils. It is probable that the enrollment will reach 100 this session, as 90 was reached last year. The school has progressed nicely for the past few years and is now the pride of the community. It is under the management of Prof. D. L. Wedaman, with Misses Lottie Lee Halfacre and Ida Mae Setzler as assistants.

The ladies of the Local Improvement association of Hunter-DeWalt school are making elaborate preparations for a Hallowe'en party for the benefit of their school. The party is to be given at the school house on Friday night, October 22. All the usual Hallowe'en attractions will be given, and many others. Come and spend an evening in fun and frolic and help the ladies out.

Sells Home After 49 Years.

Mr. D. Julius Hentz has sold the old homestead to Mr. Bachman M. Suber and Mr. Thos. Murphy, who will take possession at once, both moving their families thereon. A new dwelling will be built as soon as practical. By this Mr. Hentz breaks up housekeeping and leaves the old home he has occupied 49 years. He will live with his son, Mr. John Hentz, at Pomaria. The price paid is $5,000.

BOYS AND GIRLS

Get a Waterproof School Bag Free.

The Newberry Savings Bank will give a handsome School Bag to the first 500 school children under the age of 12 years who on the last week of October, beginning Monday, October 25th, will call at the bank with the correct answer to the example found below, with their name and address signed.

Example: If Mary deposits $1.00 per week for twelve months in the year with the Newberry Savings Bank and her brother John 50 cents per week, and if each draws out $1.00 every month, how much more at the end of the year will Mary have saved than John?

Answer
Name
Address

Cut out above, fill in answer, name and address and bring to the bank at the time specified, and we will have a nice little present for you, which you will easily secure with the above answer.

With the new satchel we would like to make you our friend. Ask papa to loan you a dollar, and with that deposit of one dollar we shall be mutual friends, while you will be a depositor in the bank with your money at interest.

FOR MAYOR.

Z. F. Wright is hereby announced for re-election as mayor of Newberry and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

FOR ALDERMAN, WARD 1.

Voters of Ward 1 hereby announce P. F. Baxter as a candidate for re-election as alderman, subject to the rules of the Democratic primary.

J. D. Wicker is hereby announced as a candidate for alderman from Ward No. 1 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

ALDERMAN—Ward 3.

Haskell Wright is hereby announced for Alderman for Ward 3 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

ALDERMAN, WARD 3.

Robert B. Lominack is hereby announced as a candidate for alderman from Ward 2 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

C. T. Summer is hereby announced as a candidate for re-election as alderman from Ward 3 and will abide the rules of the Democratic party.

FOR ALDERMAN, WARD 4.

John A. Senn is hereby announced as a candidate for alderman from Ward 4 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

ALDERMAN FOR WARD 5.

W. H. Hardeman is hereby announced as a candidate for re-election as alderman for Ward 5 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

Sam C. Hiller is hereby announced as a candidate for alderman from Ward No. 5 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary. Mr. Hiller has had experience in the working of roads and bridges and would be a valuable member of the city council.

Henry Brown is hereby announced as a candidate for alderman from Ward 5 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Program For Teachers' Meeting Saturday October 23—Meeting Will Be Held in High School.

Organization.
Address by Prof. Reed Smith, University of South Carolina; subject "Community Civics."
Song, Miss Carolyn Caldwell.
"What I do the First Day of School," Miss Olive Feagle.
Song, Miss Carolyn Caldwell.
Discussion of year plans and transaction of business.

Death of Mrs. Mary Dobbins.

Mrs. Mary L. Dobbins, an aged lady, died Tuesday at the county home and was buried Wednesday at Smyrna church. In the absence of her pastor, Rev. W. R. Bouknight of the Methodist church conducted the funeral service. Mrs. Dobbins had been at the county home only two weeks. She is survived by one son, Mr. Ligon Dobbins.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Seed Wheat—Several varieties; pure and selected. For sale by Johnson-McCrackin Co. 10-22-tf

For Sale—Fulghum oats; just a few more bushels at 90 cents the bushel. E. M. Lane, Phone 295-2. 10-22-2t

For Sale—60 bushels county raised seed corn in the ear. F. R. Hunter. 10-22-2t

DR. YOUNG M. BROWN,

Dentist

Newberry, S. C.

For Sale—Carolina grown rye, crimson clover, rape seed, genuine Texas red stone oats, Apple oats and vetch. Johnson-McCrackin Co. 9-17-tf

For Sale—Nice brood mare and colt six months old. Apply to E. H. Livingston, Farmers' Oil Mill. 10-12-3t

Trespass Notice—All persons are hereby notified and warned not to trespass upon the lands of the undersigned in No. 5 township by hunting or in any manner whatever. W. C. Sligh, Geo. C. Glasgow, J. William Folk. 10-12-4t

For Sale—Recleaned and graded Fulghum oats $1.00 per bushel. Recleaned and graded Apple oats 75c per bushel. Apply to H. O. Long, Silverstreet, S. C. 8-27-tf

Wanted—New or renewal subscriptions to Southern Cultivator, Progressive Farmer, McCall's Magazine, Woman's World and other magazines. Please give or send to Curtis Epting, 1704 Nance St., Newberry, S. C.

For Sale Cheap—Chattanooga discolow. Apply to W. L. Graham, R. F. D. 1. 10-19-2t

SAVE MONEY
By Buying From Us
Chairs, Rockers,
Dressers, Beds,
Grates, Stoves,
Heaters.

"When West.Martin Co. Says Its Oak, Its Oak."

West-Martin Co.